

Princeton Lyman

Princeton N. Lyman is the Ralph Bunche Senior Fellow in Africa Policy Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations. His foreign service career of more than three decades at the Department of State and the U.S. Agency for International Development included service as the Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs and as Ambassador to Nigeria. He is the recipient of the President's Distinguished Service Award and the Department of State's Distinguished Honor Award. He has been a Senior Fellow at the U.S. Institute of Peace and Executive Director of the Global Interdependence Initiative of the Aspen Institute. He was graduated from the University of California, Berkeley and received his M.A. and Ph.D. from Harvard University.