

Walter Stern

Walter Stern is Vice Chairman and a Director of Capital International, Inc. and Vice Chairman of Capital Group International, Inc., part of Capital Group Companies, Inc., a large investment management firm. He also serves as Chairman of the New Perspective Fund and the Emerging Markets Growth Fund, both global funds. He has responsibilities for following financial and political developments worldwide. In addition, he serves as an Advisory Board member of the South Africa Capital Growth Fund and as Chairman of the Hudson Institute and Vice President of The Washington Institute for Near East Policy

Prior to joining Capital in 1973, Mr. Stern was a Senior Executive Vice President and Director of Drexel Burnham & Co. in New York, where he was responsible for research, institutional sales, and investment management.

Mr. Stern received a B.A. (Phi Beta Kappa) from Williams College and an M.B.A. (with distinction) from Harvard University. A chartered financial analyst, he is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, a member of the Board of Visitors of the Monterey Institute and a Trustee of the Financial Analysts Research Foundation. He is a past Chairman of the Institute for Chartered Financial Analysts and the Financial Analysts Federation. He recently retired from the Board of Temple-Inland, Inc. and serves on a number of other charitable and public policy boards.